2. The Commission shall have power to require any person, subject to any privilege which may be claimed by that person under any law for the time being in force, to furnish information on such points or matters as, in the opinion of the Commission, may be useful for, or relevant.

Substituted by R.P. Act No. 20 of 1966.

8 Inserted/Amended by Central Act No. 79 of 1971.
The subject matter of the inquiry and any person so required shall be deemed to be legally bound to furnish such information within the meaning of section 176 and section 177 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860).

(3) The Commission or any officer, not below the rank of a gazetted officer, specially authorised in this behalf by the Commission may enter any building or place where the Commission has reason to believe that any books of account or other documents relating to the subject matter of the inquiry, may be found, and may seize any such books of account or documents or take extracts or copies thereof, subject to the provisions of section 103 and section 103 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898) in so far as they may be applicable.

(4) The Commission shall be deemed to be civil court and when any offence as is described in section 175 section 178 section 179 section 180 or section 228 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (Act XV of 1860) is committed in the view or presence of the Commission, the Commission may, after recording the facts constituting the offence and the statement of the accused as provided for in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), forward the case to a magistrate having jurisdiction to try the same and the magistrate to whom any such case is forwarded shall proceed to hear the complaint against the accused as if the case had been forwarded to him under section 452 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898).

(5) If any person, by words either spoken or intended to be read, makes or publishes any statement or does any other act which is calculated to bring the Commission or any member thereof into disrepute, he shall be punishable with simple imprisonment which may extend to two years or with fine or with both.

(6) The provisions of Section 198-B of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898) shall apply in relation to an offence under sub-section (5) as they apply in relation to an offence referred to in sub-section (1) of the said section 198-B subject to the modification that no complaint in respect of such offence shall be made by the public prosecutor except with the previous sanction of the State Government.

(7) Any proceeding before the Commission shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 of the I.P.C. 1860 (Act XV of 1860).
54 Power of Commission to utilise the services of certain officers and investigation agencies in conducting investigation pertaining to inquiry

(1) The Commission may, for the purpose of conducting any investigation pertaining to the inquiry utilise the services -

(a) in the case of a Commission appointed by the Central Government, of any officer or investigation agency of the Central Government or any State Government with the concurrence of the Central Government or the State Government, as the case may be; or

(b) in the case of a Commission appointed by the State Government, of any officer or investigation agency of the State Government of Central Government with the concurrence of the State Government or the Central Government, as the case may be.

(2) For the purpose of investigating into any matter pertaining to the inquiry, any officer or agency whose services are utilised under sub-section (1) may, subject to the direction and control of the Commission -

(a) Summons and enforce the attendance of any person and examine him;

(b) require the discovery and production of any document; and

(c) requisition any public record or copy thereof from any office

(3) The provisions of section 6 shall apply in relation to any statement made by a person before any officers or agency whose services are utilised under sub-section (1) as they apply in relation to any statement made by a person in the course of giving evidence before the Commission.

(4) The officer or agency, whose services are utilised under sub-section (1), shall investigate into any matter pertaining to the inquiry and submit a report thereon (hereafter in this section referred to as the investigation report) to the Commission within such period as may be specified by the Commission in this behalf.

(5) The Commission shall satisfy itself about the correctness of the facts stated and the conclusions, if any, arrived at the investigation report submitted to it under sub-section (4), and for this purpose the Commission may make such inquiry (including the examination of the person or person who conducted or assisted in the investigation as it thinks fit).
6. No statement made by a person in the course of giving evidence before the Commission shall subject him to or be used against him in any civil or criminal proceeding except a prosecution for giving false evidence by such statement:

Provided that the statement—

(a) is made in reply to a question which he is required by the Commission to answer;

(b) is relevant to the subject matter of the inquiry.

*§ 6A. Persons not obliged to disclose secret process of manufacture of goods in certain cases—

Except in cases where a Commission is expressly required to inquire into the process of manufacture of any goods, nothing in this Act shall be deemed to compel any person giving evidence before the Commission to disclose any secret process of manufacture thereon.

*§ 7. Commission to cease to exist when so noticed—

(1) The appropriate Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare that—

(a) A Commission (other than a Commission appointed in pursuance of a resolution passed by the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State) shall cease to exist if it is of opinion that the continued existence of the Commission is unnecessary;

(b) A Commission appointed in pursuance of a resolution passed by the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State shall cease to exist if a resolution for the discontinuance of the Commission is passed by the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State.

(2) Every notification issued under sub-section (1) shall specify the date from which the Commission shall cease to exist and on the issue of such notification, the Commission shall cease to exist with effect from the date specified therein.

*§ Inserted by Central Act No. 79 of 1971.

*§ Sec. 7 substituted by Central Act No. 79 of 1971.
Procedure to be followed by the Commission.

*1.8 The Commission shall, subject to any rules that may be made in this behalf, have power to regulate its own procedure (including the fixing of places and times of its sittings and deciding whether to sit in public or private).

*1.8A Inquiry not to be interrupted by reason of vacancy or change in the constitution of the Commission:

(1) Where the Commission consists of two or more members, it may sit notwithstanding the absence of the Chairman or any other member of any vacancy among its members.

(2) Where during the course of an inquiry a Commission, a change has taken place in the constitution of the Commission by reason any vacancy having been filled or by any other reason, it shall not be necessary for the Commission to commence the inquiry afresh and the inquiry may be continued from the stage at which the change took place.

*1.8B Persons likely to be prejudicially affected to be heard; if, at any stage of the inquiry, the Commission-

(a) considers it necessary to inquire into the conduct of any person; or

(b) is of opinion that the reputation of any person is likely to be prejudicially affected by the Inquiry.

The Commission shall give to that person a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the inquiry and to produce evidence in his defence;

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply where the credit of a witness is being impeached.

*1.8C Right of cross-examination and representation by legal practitioner.

The appropriate Government, every person referred to in section 8B and, with the permission of the Commission, any other person whose evidence is required by the Commission-

(a) may cross-examine a witness other than a witness produced by it or him;

(b) may address the Commission; and

(c) may be represented before the Commission by a practitioner or with the permission of the Commission, by any other person.
9. No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the appropriate Government, the Commission or any member thereof, or any person acting under the direction either of the appropriate Government or of the Commission in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or of any rules or orders made thereunder or in respect of the publication, by or under the authority of the appropriate Government or the Commission, of any report, paper or proceedings.

10. Every member of the Commission and every officer appointed or authorised by the Commission to exercise functions under this Act shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

*110A Penalty for acts calculated to bring the Commission or any member thereof into disrepute

(1) If any person by words either spoken or intended to be read, makes or publishes any statement or does any other act, which is calculated to bring the Commission or any member thereof into dispute, he shall be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.

(2) The provisions of section 198B of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898) shall apply in relation to an offence under sub-section (1) as they apply in relation to an offence referred to in sub-section (1) of the said section 198B subject to the modification that no complaint in respect of such offence shall be made by the public prosecutor except with the previous sanction.

(a) In the case of a Commission, or member of a Commission appointed by the Central Government of the Central Government; or

(b) In the case of a Commission, or member of a Commission appointed by the State Government, or the State Government.

Act to apply

11. Where any authority (by whatever name called), other than a Commission appointed under section 3, has been or is set up under any resolution or order of the appropriate Government for the purpose of making an inquiry into any definite matter of public importance of which the Commission is of opinion that all or any of the provisions of this Act should be made applicable to the authority, that Government may, subject to the provisions contained in the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 3, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that the said provision of this Act shall apply... provisions of this Act shall apply to that authority, and on the issue of such a notification, that authority shall be deemed to be a Commission appointed under section 3 for the purpose of this Act.

12. (1) The appropriate Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:

(a) the term of office and the conditions of service of the members of the Commission;

(b) the manner in which inquiries may be held under this Act and the procedure to be followed by the Commission in respect of the proceedings before it;

(c) the powers of Civil Court which may be vested in the Commission;

(d) any other matter which has to be, or may be prescribed.

(3) Every rule made by the Central Government under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or amendment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

*1 Principal Act as amended to come into force in Jammu & Kashmir and in certain districts in Nagaland.

The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, shall come into force in the State of Jammu & Kashmir and in the districts of Kashmir and Mokokchung in the State of Nagaland on such date as the Central Government may, by notification into the Official Gazette, appoint.

THE COMMISSIONS OF INQUIRY (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1986

(Act No. 36 of 1986)

[First published in the "Gazette of India" (Extraordinary), Part II, Section 1, dated 21st August, 1986.]

An Act to further amend the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1952.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:

1. Short title and commencement—(1) This Act may be called the Commissions of Inquiry (Amendment) Act, 1986.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 14th day of May, 1986.

2. Amendment of Act 60 of 1952.—In section 3 of the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1952, (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), after sub-section (4), the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely:

'(5) The provisions of sub-section (4) shall not apply if the appropriate Government is satisfied that in the interest of the sovereignty and integrity of India, the security of the State, friendly relations with foreign States or in the public interest, it is not expedient to lay before the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State, the report, or any part thereof, of the Commission on the inquiry made by the Commission under sub-section (1), and issues a notification to that effect in the Official Gazette.

Explanation.—For the purpose of sub-section (5), "report" includes an interim report and all proceedings of a Commission.

(6) Every notification issued under sub-section (5) shall be laid before the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State, if it is sitting, as soon as may be after the issue of the notification, and if it is not sitting, within seven days of its re-assembly and the appropriate Government shall seek the approval of the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State, to the notification by a resolution moved within a period of fifteen days beginning with the day on which the notification is so laid before the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State and if the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State makes any modification in the notification or directs that the notification should cease to have effect, the notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be;

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the principal Act, as amended by the said Ordinance, shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

THE MINES AND MINERALS (REGULATION AND DEVELOPMENT) AMENDMENT ACT, 1986

(Act No. 37 of 1986)

[First published in the "Gazette of India" (Extraordinary), Part II, Section 1, dated the 22nd August, 1986.]

An Act further to amend the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Act, 1957.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Amendment Act, 1986.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.
THE COMMISSIONS OF INQUIRY (AMENDMENT) ORDINANCE, 1986

No. 6 of 1986

Promulgated by the President in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Republic of India.

An Ordinance further to amend the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1952.

WHEREAS the House of the People is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

Now, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance:

1. (1) This Ordinance may be called the Commissions of Inquiry (Amendment) Ordinance, 1986.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. In section 3 of the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1952, after subsection (4), the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely:

relations with foreign States or in the public interest, it is not expedient to lay before the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State, the report, or any part thereof, of the Commission on the inquiry made by the Commission under sub-section (1), and issues a notification to that effect in the Official Gazette.

(6) Every notification issued under sub-section (5) shall be laid before the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State, if it is sitting as soon as may be after the issue of the notification, and if it is not sitting, within seven days of its re-assembly, and the appropriate Government shall seek the approval of the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State, to the notification by a resolution moved within a period of fifteen days beginning with the day on which the notification is so laid before the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State and if the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State makes any modification in the notification or directs that the notification should cease to have effect, the notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be.
